The entertainer

By Baipor W.

“The entertainers know best about merrymaking and joysprinkling. They know exactly how to put a smile on one’s face, spread the fun and pass forward the happiness.

Let’s celebrate the arrival of this coming new year with the presence of three little entertainers and let them help you pass a little happiness forward to your family and friends. Don’t forget to pick up some pieces of advice from these little experts about making the most out of your 2013: to always keep busy with plenty of fun, to live life up to your imagination, and to never run out of dreams and adventure.”
